

ROBOTS

POEM

In the year twenty thirty-two,
Imagine the things that robots will do.
They will wash your clothes
And wash your hair,
They will tidy your room
When you're not there.
They will wash the dishes
And answer the door,
They will cook the dinner
And sweep the floor.
They'll sew,
They'll iron,
They'll clean,
They'll knit.
And no more homework,
Your robot will do it!
